Q1.

What is your favorite food to cook? How do you make it?
Please tell me in detail about your food and how you make it.

SAMPLE SCRIPT - IM

I like to cook. Kimchi Fried Rice. It's a fried rice made of Kimchi. Kimchi is a traditional Korean food. let me see.... To start, I need to chop all the ingredients such as Kimchi and pork. Then, I fry them with rice and some oil. Lastly, I put a fried egg on top and then it's done! I cook it often because it is very easy to make.

Q2.

How did you become interested in cooking?

How old were you?

Who taught you how to cook?

Who did you make your first meal for?

SAMPLE SCRIPT - IH

I first became interested in cooking when I was eight years old. I wanted to do something for my mom's birthday. So I decided to cook seaweed soup, which is a traditional Korean food we eat on birthdays. I love seaweed soup because it's full of nutrients. My father and I searched online and printed out a recipe. He helped me get the ingredients and taught me how to cook. It was very delicious, so my mother was very happy and touched. To this day, she still talks about it. I was very happy to make it for her.

Q3.

We sometimes fail to cook well. The food may taste bad.
Talk about an unexpected experience while cooking.
What was the problem? What did you do wrong?
What did you do?

SAMPLE SCRIPT - AL

Although my number one hobby is cooking, there were some unexpected experiences. I will tell you about this one incident that happened last year. It was when I planned to cook for my boyfriend's 27th birthday. I wanted to do the best for my boyfriend, so my original plan was to make a chocolate cake. But the thing is... it was my first time to bake it! I searched information online and read every single line of it to be fully prepared. This process helped me draw up specific plans. But as soon as I started baking, I was in a panic. I set the temperature too high and missed the timing to turn off the oven. As a result, the cake was burnt. One good fortune was that I had a gift basket prepared. I was so worn out at the end of the day. Since then, my baking skills have improved day by day and now, making a chocolate cake is like a walk in the park for me!
